

Writes Of Hazards In Driving Trucks Over Chinese Roads

In a letter dated "somewhere in Kweichow, China", Francis Starr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Starr, Newmarket, describes the difficulties in transportation encountered on Chinese roads. Written from the back of a truck which was suffering from motor trouble, Francis notes that, though vulnerable as far as bandits are concerned, the weather was some compensation, being warm and sunny.

Francis is attached to a Friends' Ambulance unit working out of China. Excerpts from his letter follow:

"I had high hopes that I'd be able to send you my Christmas message from Tengchow on the China-Burma border but fate was working against me and the other day I was started with a convoy to Chungking. At the present time I'm mounted on the tailboard of my truck with the bed-roll of a Philadelphia insurance underwriter for a seat and the trunk of a Scottish lab technician for a desk. Put your finger on the road half way from Kunming to Kweiyang and you will have me covered.

"This is my first journey into this part of the country but I've seen few sections more desolate and more awe-inspiring than what I can see from here. There isn't a human being or human habitation in sight and all the good earth I can see is a mass of naked, rocky mountains reaching into the sky.

"The evening before last as we were nearing the top of a hill my engine gave up the struggle and since then we have been sitting here. I don't know what the bandit situation is here but we are certainly vulnerable. Nevertheless we have spent two nights in the open and will probably have to spend two more. We couldn't pow-wow (break down) under more favorable circumstances. The days are warm and sunny and there is a full moon at night. We had recently been given a good supply of rations by some evacuating Americans and I've eaten along a couple cases so we are more than surviving. A south-bound F.A.U. convoy went through yesterday and by now our plight should be known in Kutsing so a rescue mission should soon be here.

"A Ford truck that has been considerably altered by Chinese mechanics and Chinese roads since it said 'goodbye' to Dearborn has just wheezed by and the accompanying cloud of dust halted my literary operations for a bit. The delay has given me an opportunity for reflection on what things may be like back home just now. It's a little difficult to remember what winter is like as I sit here in the shade in a state of semi-nudity but I suppose Ontarians will soon be having weather that will remind them that Christmas is coming up fast."

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

Cpl. John (Jack) Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rose, Orillia, formerly of Newmarket and Keswick, is expected home for Christmas after service overseas.

MORE SKATING FOR SCHOOLS IN RINK SOUGHT

Continuing to build up the libraries in the public schools in Newmarket, the public school board Friday night authorized the three school principals to jointly spend up to $1,000 on books for the classrooms.

The board also authorized expenditures for new fire extinguishers to replace those now in the schools and to increase the number of extinguishers in the halls and classrooms.

Members of the board agreed to forward a request to the arena committee of the Newmarket town council to increase the number of free hours for public school children.

At present, the arena is available to public school children for skating on Friday afternoons. The board is asking free time during the hours from 4 to 6 p.m. There are additional hours for public school boys playing hockey but outside of the Friday period, there is no free time for public school girls.

In this connection, Les Beazer, manager of the arena, appeared before the board earlier in the meeting and sought the board's assistance in providing adult helpers during the Friday skating period. Mr. Beazer asked that a number of parents help in instructing the children.

The board accepted the resignation of Miss Amelia Rogers, for many years on the public school teaching staff, who has been on sick leave since last summer. Miss Rogers' letter said that she was resigning because of ill-health.

The desks in Principal H. A. Jackson's grade eight room in King George school are being replaced by chairs and tables. The desks will be moved to Stuart Scott school.

Veterans' Hockey Team Has First Work-Out

By BOB BENVILLE

The Newmarket Veterans' Association hockey team had its first practice work-out Monday night at the Memorial arena when many was the groan as old joints loosened and inactive muscles creaked. A score of prospects turned out for the first practice, all of them veterans of this war and pre-war hockey-ists.

The vets will play in a local league but if the calibre of their hockey warrants it, will probably seek outside groupings as well. In the meantime they will take out-of-town matches on an exhibition basis. The team proposes to dress in black and white sweaters with the initials N.V.A. (Newmarket Veterans' Association) worked on a crest.

Bert Ward, president of the association, is honorary president of the club. Al "Mickey" Smith, president, Norman Legge, secretary-treasurer, "Mac" McDonald, manager and coach, Myles MacInnis and Stan Evans, executive. Mr. Legge is also the new recording secretary.

Equipment seems to be the main source of worry at the moment with only one goal stick available and half a dozen sticks among the others. Old equipment in cellar and attic (wives take note) would be appreciated.

Progresses favorably. Murray Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dixon, underwent an appendicectomy last Thursday at York County hospital. He is progressing favorably.

Editorial On Prior Fire Protested By Whitchurch

Whitchurch township council instructed their clerk to make reply to the alleged inference published in The Newmarket Era and Express last week to the effect that the council had been negligent in its duty in respect to providing proper fire protection for the residents of the north-west section adjacent to Newmarket.

The municipality has a contract with the Aurora fire department to cover the area, and members said that similar arrangements might have been made with Newmarket but that place was not interested until after the Aurora deal.

Said one member, "The fire to which the newspaper made reference was an unfortunate affair, but no fire brigade could have done more than Aurora, since the house in question was gutted before any alarm was sent in."

Aurora brigade responded promptly. (The fire in question destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Prior, Strigley St., within a half mile of Newmarket town limits, Dec. 10. Newmarket fire brigade did not attend the fire.)

Clerk Crawford was instructed to make reply, on motion of Councillor L. J. Harper, explaining the situation regarding attempted negotiations with the town of Newmarket in the past.

Another motion offered by Mr. Harper authorized the reeve to sign the request of Aurora high school board asking the county council to define the Aurora high school area in accordance with the Department of Education.

The War Assets Corporation submitted a list of goods for sale by tender after Jan. 2 next, including cranes, shovels and tractors.

The treasurer reported that with the payment of about $250 in road accounts there was still a balance of about $800 in the appropriation that is unexpended. Recently the budget was enlarged by $1,800 and approved by the department of highways.

The total spent on roads this year is $20,880.67 which included a big item for snow plowing last winter.

District Boy Among Those Said Murdered By Nazis

Newmarket and district residents were shocked to hear last week that Pte. Henry C. Jones, Cedar Valley, was one of the 114 Canadian soldiers who were "allegedly murdered" by the Nazis when taken prisoner during the invasion of Normandy on D-Day, June 6, 1944.

Pte. Jones was the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jones who reside on a farm on the 7th concession of Whitchurch township. Mr. Jones is himself a veteran of the Great War.

Pte. Jones attended Shrubmount public and Pine Orchard continuation schools, and before his enlistment, he was employed in a Toronto electrical plant. Enlisting in September, 1943, Pte. Jones was just 18 years old when he went overseas in April, 1944 and had only been over two months when he took part in the big raid in which he lost his life.

Pte. Jones is survived by his parents and one brother, Bertie, who has been overseas for the past five years.

Orville Ganton Heads Midget Hockey Group

North York Midget Hockey League was formed at a meeting in Newmarket council chambers on Monday evening. Orville Ganton was elected president, Fred Hall, secretary-treasurer, and an executive committee of Simmons, Aurora; Campbell, Pickering College; and Kendal, St. Andrew's, was named.

Pickering will play their home games in Newmarket arena with St. Andrew's holding the fort in Aurora. The league is not affiliated and the schedule will be short so individual teams may enter the O.M.H.A. play-offs if they desire.

Newmarket's entry is headed by Eddie Gibson with Alf Smith secretary-treasurer, Harry Thomas, manager, and Fred Hall, coach. With a pee-wee school league and midget and juvenile district leagues, Newmarket is becoming a hockey hot-bed and should soon take its place with Ontario's top flight hockey towns again.

Teasdale, before reporting at Montreal for his discharge. Before his enlistment, LAC Teasdale was employed in the local branch of the Bank of Toronto.

Carols, Gifts Mark Closing Of Schools For Holiday Season

The school-rooms of all the town schools have put on a festive dress this week and all the children are agog with excitement as the year's most looked-for holiday draws near.

At the King George school, Principal H. A. Jackson stated each room had prepared its own program and on Thursday morning the best numbers from each room were presented for the benefit of the whole school. On Thursday afternoon the public and parents were invited to come to the school and they saw the same numbers that were presented in the morning. Following the open session the children returned to their rooms where they continued their own programs. On Friday morning there will be games and refreshments and the usual Christmas treat will be given to all the children.

There was carol singing in the mornings for the past two weeks by the entire school. On Friday night from 7 to 8 o'clock the senior grades will sing carols to the shut-ins around town.

The Alexander Muir school have made good use of their new loud-speaker system this week, Principal Fred Hall said, as a different room has presented a worship service every morning. On Thursday afternoon the public and parents were invited to the school when the program consisted of numbers by each of the different rooms, with the programs broadcast over the loud-speaker so that the pupils in each room could hear it. The school-rooms have all been gaily decorated by the pupils and will be open to the public. On Friday morning there will be a worship service and then the entire school will listen to the broadcast of carols from Toronto. This will be followed by the usual treat of Christmas goodies.

The three rooms at the Stuart Scott school presented a program on Thursday afternoon. Principal Miss E. Denne stated. There were drills, four plays, a minstrel show and several individual numbers. On Friday morning there will be the usual exchange of gifts and treats for all the pupils. From 9 to 9.30 every morning this week the entire school has joined in carol singing.

The three public schools will close for the holiday week on Friday noon.

At St. John's school, all pre-school children were the guests of the older pupils on Thursday afternoon when there was a gaily decorated tree, exchange of gifts and the annual treat.

LAC Kenneth Beckett is now spending a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Beckett, Tecumseh St., after recently receiving his discharge from the R.C.A.F. in which he served as an equipment assistant. Mail Volume Heavier Than '44, Says Postmaster

A heavier volume of Christmas mail than the previous year is being handled in the Newmarket post office, Postmaster Laurie Cane reported late this week. "It is coming heavy but we aren't up against it like last year," he said.

Last year's mail service was complicated by the heavy fall of snow before Christmas which blocked roads and delayed trains. So far, little trouble has been experienced from the weather.

Five high school pupils are being employed in the post office, in addition to the regular staff of five, to help out during the Christmas rush.

Mr. Cane said that the post office would be closed Christmas and New Year's days and Wednesday afternoon since it was declared a civic holiday.

H. M. Gladman, express agent, said that express orders were heavy and that inexperienced help was a problem in the main distributing centres.

Pte. R. L. Fontaine Wins British Empire Medal

The British Empire Medal has been awarded to Pte. Robert Louis Fontaine, Newmarket, according to the most recent honors list.

Pte. Fontaine, overseas for the last three and a half years, has in the last two years been a driver with the Canadian public relations unit.

PTE. R. L. FONTAINE

A correspondent writing from overseas on the award to Pte. Fontaine said he "was just one of the guys and the number of close shaves he had would make the average infantryman's hair curl." Pte. Fontaine was in every campaign that the First Canadian Division and the First Canadian Corps waged. Pte. Fontaine went into the forward areas as often as nine or ten times a day.

Born in Newmarket, Pte. Fontaine went to school here. He enlisted five years ago. A sister, Mrs. George Chant, lives on Eagle St.

There is still time for donations to be made. H. E. Lambert, Bank of Toronto, or any member of the Lions club will accept contributions.

Saturday morning there will be a special show at the Strand theatre for the orphans at the Richmond Hill home. The show is being made possible through the efforts of Morley McPhee, manager of the theatre.

Fred A. Lundy, chairman of the club committee in charge of arranging the program for the radio show being sponsored by the club January 4, said today that arrangements are proceeding satisfactorily and that he hoped to be able to announce fuller details in the coming week.

If Christmas Made Escape, Said Failing In Meaning

Pickering College held its annual candlelight service Sunday night in the college auditorium which was filled with students and visitors from Newmarket. One of the features of the service was the Christmas chancel, a scene depicting the approach of all that is good in life and the retreat of evil with the birth of Christ. The scene, painted by one of the school artists, Fred Hagan, dominated the front of the auditorium.

Using as his subject The Fellowship Of Reconciliation, Headmaster Joseph McCulley said that "if we celebrate the Christmas season without a thought of the world outside our doors, we are using the occasion and the message it brings as a comfortable escape from the harsh realities that still exist in the world.

"The cry comes to us from starving thousands of our fellow men across the seas and some of our people are wondering just what their responsibilities are, forgetting that He whose birthday we are celebrating said 'feed your enemies.'"

Included in the service were such traditional carols as Silent Night and We, Three Kings Of Orient Are, as well as the First Canadian Christmas Carol, written for the Huron Indians by Father Brebeuf. The programs were designed by Rudy Renzius.

AGAIN, THE NEED FOR MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION

The need for a businessmen's association on Main St. is demonstrated once again this Christmas season. There will be no Christmas market to speak of this year because nothing has been done towards organizing it on a large scale and advertising it among the farmers and potential purchasers. There was no Santa Claus parade because there was no one to organize it. Everyone has been "too busy" to do anything.

The customers are in the dark as to store hours and holidays. How late will stores stay open?
Will they be open Monday? There has been no association that could act in the interests of all merchants by declaring the hours stores will be open and what holidays they will observe. Here, is poor service to the public.

This Christmas has been a successful one from the merchants' point of view. There is plenty of buying power and while war enforced shortages
still persist, there is more stock on the shelves than last year. Main St. merchants have enjoyed considerable prosperity but what of the years ahead? Can they always count on getting by as they have this year without the benefit of a Christmas market, and a Santa Claus parade, and the service to customers in the way of announcing hours and holidays?

Merchants will find that in the coming years,
there will be more competition from other towns and Toronto. As transportation becomes easier, more money will go to the city. As merchandise becomes available, more will shop in larger centres. Unless the merchants can advertise Newmarket as a shopping centre through a Christmas market and Santa Claus parade, to mention only two methods, they will find they are losing much potential business.

The going is easy now. Before it becomes hard, the merchants would be advised to form a businessmen's association to protect themselves from outside competition, to organize merchants in the matter of closing hours and holidays, and to advertise Newmarket as a shopping centre.
They must act now or it will be too late.

ANOTHER SIDE TO FARMERS' INCOME TAX

Last week, there appeared on this page, under the heading, What Others Think, an editorial from The Financial Post, Toronto, which contained figures which purported to show that the farmer lagged far behind the rest of the population in the payment of income tax. According to the figures contained in the article, income taxes paid by the farmers on the 1943 income amounted to $7.2 millions which was 1.4 percent of the total income tax paid for that year.

The editorial continued: "In the meantime the public remains in the dark as to what progress
if any has been made in clearing up an altogether unsatisfactory situation."

"Dominion tax officials have intimated that an army of collectors would be needed to enforce the income tax act so far as agriculture is concerned. They have offered this as an excuse for the relatively poor showing so far revealed of tax collections from farmers."

The editorial urges that the matter be turned over to the senate committee investigating income taxation for consideration of not only ways to collect the tax but also the repeated assertion that income taxes on farmers are too high.

From the Canadian Federation of Agriculture,
however, comes the announcement of a brief

presented by the president, H. H. Hannam, before the senate committee, urging a revision of income tax laws as they apply to the farmer. Mr. Han-nam offers three major recommendations: that the farmers' income for taxation purposes be averaged over a period of at least four years;
that farm workers be exempted from tax deductions at the source; the establishment of a "basic herd plan" to overcome the difficulties found in assessing income tax returns from herd reduction or dispersal sales. A fourth consideration was that a farmer is not permitted any allowance as a substitute for wages nor can his wife have the advantage of earning up to $660 without taxation
as far as her work on the farm is concerned.

The need for an averaged basic income for taxation purposes is obvious. Weather and price fluctuations give the farmer a wide range of income over the course of several years. In one year he might have a high income while the previous year, he may have operated at a loss.
Paying tax on an irregular income is more costly than paying it on a steady income.

As far as tax deduction at the source for farm workers is concerned, it is argued that farmers who adhere to the regulations often lost their help or had to pay the tax out of their own pockets.
The recommendation for a "basic herd plan"
arises from the regulation which at present considers all returns from herd sales as income, irrespective of the capital invested in the breeding herd.

From the argument advanced by Mr. Hannam
it would appear that it is not a case of farmers wishing to "beat the government" on income taxes as implied by The Financial Post figures, but of making the methods of income taxation conform with existing conditions. There is no encouragement for the farmer to pay his tax if he is taxed in a manner, which as indicated by Mr.
Hannam, takes no consideration of conditions governing his income.

WATCH THE STONES, POP

One of the surest ways of testing ice to see whether it is hard enough for a good game of shinny, according to school boy tradition, is to throw a rock on it. If the ice cracks, another day of freezing is indicated. If the ice rings true, out with the skates and hockey sticks. There is only one disadvantage to this practice, the accumulation of stones is quite a hazard to more elderly skaters. Where the shinny player would go over stones with his skates without a passing thought, his father is more likely to trip and spend the rest of the winter nursing a sprained back. In the interests of posterity, we suggest that if the shinny players must throw stones, they throw only little ones so that their fathers may be preserved a few years longer.

What Others Think

THE WAILING GERMANS

(The Sun, Swift Current)

It has come to pass. A despatch last week indicated that German resentment against United States occupation methods is developing gradually into bitter hatred which is giving rise to increasing talk of resistance. Investigators have found, in a survey, that the Germans "seem to feel that they have suffered enough, whatever their crime." That is something the world will have to guard against.

The German people who accepted with deep satisfaction the boastful statements of Pat Herman Goering that millions of Europeans would starve to death before one German went hungry; who turned out in millions to "hell" the wanton bombing of Rotterdam, the studied extermination by cruel murderous methods of Russians, Poles, Jews, Czechs and followed blindly
the leadership of the most vicious coterie of gangsters the world has ever seen, are weeping crocodile tears now.

What they have and are suffering at the hands of occupation forces now cannot even be remotely
compared with that which the French, Belgian, Norwegians, Poles or Netherlands experienced during the Nazi occupation. The nation which started two wars designed for conquest of the world must take its medicine—and the Lord way.
There is no other course, merciful as the ways of the democratic nations are, to teach them a lesson. To get soft now is inviting trouble.

ECLIPSE

By GOLDEN GLOW

Tuesday evening, there was a total eclipse of the moon. It was a night to remember with pleasure. Earlier, radio announcers had said that the eclipse would take place Christmas Eve but they discovered their mistake in time to let us know it would be Tuesday.

The conditions for viewing this spectacle of nature were perfect.
I am truly sorry for anyone who missed seeing it for we may never have a chance just like it again. It began between 7.30 and 8 p.m. and was over by 11 p.m. One description was that it looked like a huge, red Christmas tree bulb suspended in the sky and I think that description fits it perfectly.

The shadow appeared first at the left hand side of the moon
and it was amazing how quickly
it progressed until the face of the moon was covered. The stars shone with magnificent brilliance, particularly during the total eclipse. It was a grand Christmas treat. Now, while I may, let me wish a merry

ARENA NEWS

By LES BEAZER

It's Christmas coming up and our schedule is advertised elsewhere in this issue. As you can see, we have skating afternoon and evening all through the holidays and we hope all the children will take advantage of these afternoon sessions.

The Newmarket and district hockey league, under the presidency of James Walker, will begin its schedule January 3 at 8 p.m. We will have a super-duper opening.

Boy, what a team the vets have. We hereby challenge all vets' teams anywhere. O.K. Mickey? The hockey fans in Newmarket are in for a big surprise.

Roche's Point has been on the ice for one practice and they, too, have a powerhouse aggregation and 200 bucks worth of equipment.

Bing Caswell and the R.S.M. are in there fighting with the camp team and its every morning at 10 o'clock getting the team whipped into shape.

I haven't seen the merchants' team yet but they are scouring the country and last night was the first practice session. I'll tell you about them next week.

The juvenile C team goes on the ice tonight and is out to win a championship or bust.

The figure skating club is all set and this Saturday should see about 50 or 60 out.

Both professionals are very happy about the talent and their enthusiasm is sure to spread. Someday we may have a champ in our club.

Mrs. Muirhead is the president and Shirley Andrews secretary-treasurer. "Dean" will answer any questions about the club if you call in and see her at Alec's.

Fred Hall has his midgets in line and the first practice is Friday night at 7 p.m.

Know of any good records we can add to our library of skating records? If you do, let us know and we will buy them as we always like to keep our program new, alive and peppy. Thanks.

Did you know that Wednesday at 3 a.m. was the lowest temperature we have had this year? It was three above zero on Main St. Thought it was colder, didn't you? Well, I only look at thermometers about ten times each night. The one in front of the King George Hotel, Wainman's, Office Specialty and our own and that's what they read.

In Memoriam

Fountain—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Cpl. James Fountain, killed on active service in Italy on December 20, 1944.

We often think we see his smiling face
As he bade his last goodbye
And he left his home forever
In a distant land to die.

Ever remembered by dad,
sisters, Vera and Ethel, and brother, Ross.

Fountain—In loving memory of our dear uncle, Cpl. James (Jim) Fountain, of the Irish Regiment who was killed in action December 20, 1944, and buried in Vellanova cemetery, Italy, age 22 years.

Your presence is very near us,
Your love remains with us yet,
You were the kind of an uncle
Your loved ones will never forget.

Ever remembered by Verne,
Doris and Lowell.

Fountain—In grateful and proud memory of L. Cpl. Jim Fountain, who gave his life in Italy on December 20, 1944.

Greater love hath no man than this.
Sharon friends.

Rose—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Fannie Rose, who passed away December 24, 1944.

What is home without a mother?
All things this world may send,
But when we lost our darling mother,
We lost our dearest friend.

Ever remembered by son, Carl,
and daughter, Nellie.

Tait—In loving memory of a dear little son, Grant Tait, who passed away December 17, 1944, age 6 months.

The memory of his dear wee ways
Will linger with us all our days;
Sweetest flower, too sweet to stay,
God took him home to show us the way.

Lovingly remembered by mother and daddy.

GIVE CHRISTMAS GOOSE TO TOWN EMPLOYEES

Aurora town employees are receiving a goose from the municipality with Christmas greetings this year. The town council approved the expenditure on Saturday with 12 employees to be looked after.

"Our employees have done a good job throughout the year," said Mayor Ross Linton.

"The gift was well received last year," said Clerk A. C. A. Willis.

CLASSIFIEDS CAN BE OF SERVICE TO YOU

SERVING AURORA AND DISTRICT

Lieut. N. S. Addie Cooney Awarded Red Cross Medal

First woman graduate of Aurora high school to be decorated is Lieut. Nursing Sister Addie Cooney, Schomberg, who has been awarded the Royal Red Cross medal, Second Class. Lieut. Cooney enlisted in the R.C.A.M.C. early in the war and saw service in both Italy and on the western front.

When landing in Italy, the ship which she was aboard was torpedoed and she, along with other nursing sisters, spent several hours in the water. She was in action close to the front line for several months and returned from overseas a few months ago.

Another Schomberg district resident was also included in the recent awards. Cpl. J. C. Turton was goaltender on the Schomberg hockey club in pre-war days. He enlisted in 1941, going overseas the same year. He served both in Italy and in France. Cpl. Turton was awarded the British Empire Medal.

EXPECT RECORD MAIL
Postmaster George Walker requests that Christmas mail for Aurora be bundled before posting to enable the local staff to handle the heavy rush of mail. Four additional clerks have been added and Mr. Walker says everything points to a record amount of mail being handled by the Aurora office this year.

MAYOR, REEVE TO STAND AGAIN

Mayor Ross Linton will be a candidate for the mayoralty in 1946, he announced at the final meeting of Aurora town council on Saturday evening. With the exception of Councillor Fred Rowland, who will not be a candidate because of ill-health, it would appear likely that the entire 1945 council will seek office.

Council met with only a bare quorum for their final meeting, with Councillors A. N. Fisher and Dr. Crawford Rose detained on business and Deputy-Reeve Asa Cook away through illness.

"I received 100 percent co-operation from council members and town employees," Mayor Linton said. "One feature I regret is that there were not enough committee meetings during the year. That is where the work should be done, not in council. We spent too much time discussing matters that were the committee's business this year. Being short one member of council didn't help either. I will be a candidate regardless of who opposes me."

"I expect to be a candidate again," said Reeve C. E. Sparks. "I had thought of retiring once but there are some things I would like to see completed. Our stop-light will be erected by spring. Toronto is again interested in roads being built. We should see that No. 11 Highway is included in the program. I agree with the mayor that there should have been more committee meetings. I called one meeting and only the mayor attended. I want to congratulate the mayor. He has been more than faithful in carrying out his duties."

"I am greatly interested in seeing more supervised recreation in town," said Councillor R. V. Smith. "It is time we did something to improve the town park, with games for the smaller children, a softball diamond, and other items. There is no reason why we couldn't provide an open-air rink with lights for skating, too. The rink schedule is too full to give all a chance. I want to see a housing scheme. We need strong men with determination as candidates. I will run again."

"I would like to come back to council once more. I learned a lot this year, which will be useful another year," said Councillor Elwood Davis.

"I regret my business didn't allow me to do all I wanted to do," Councillor William West told council. "I am uncertain as yet as to whether I can do more outside of council for some of the things we need than as a member of council. I am much in favor of quick action on a community hall. I am very much in favor of a V.O.N. nurse. I will make my mind up before nomination but I would like to see more accomplished another year."

While not present at the meeting it is understood that Deputy-Reeve Cook will definitely be a candidate again, and that Councillors Fisher and Rose will again stand.

Town Solicitor L. C. Lee congratulated council on their work. "You have improved the town's position which is gratifying. I hope that next year's council will be able to lower the tax rate. It is the best advertising the town can have and will encourage industry and building which we need badly. We have a new school facing us, but we shouldn't let that stop us spending money on needed projects. We hear extensive improvements will be needed at the arena next year to maintain our investment. It is just questionable if we shouldn't be considering artificial ice. The reeve spoke of the work done at county council, and what was needed to get things done. I am one who thinks county council might well be abolished and more power given the local councils. It seems to me that the county only duplicates what the province is already doing. We are over-governed in my opinion."

In addition to the members of council, nominations will be held on New Year's Eve for three school trustees and a hydro commissioner, who will be elected for a two-year term.

The terms of Dr. C. J. Devins, Fred Davis and Clarence Don-little have expired and it is believed all three will seek to retain their seats on the board.

LIONS LEAGUE STARTS PLAY

The Aurora Lions bantam hockey league, which will be featured at the Aurora arena each Thursday night after the New Year, got underway on Tuesday. Coaches Del Babcock and Bill Holloway have divided the players' lists in a manner to provide the most even competition. The majority of the youngsters are 14 and under with a few 15-year-olds, who will be playing O.M.H.A. midges, in the line-ups.

On Monday nights, practices will be held and the O.M.H.A. teams will play regular league games. The bantam games start at 5:45 p.m.

Last year Red Wings won the championship but their players are scattered this season. The miniature N.H.L. series is popular with both players, parents and fans, and the stars of the future play a good brand of hockey.

The rosters are:

Maple Leafs

HIT-AND-RUN DRIVER IS SOUGHT BY POLICE

Thirteen-year-old Fred Southwood had a narrow escape from serious injury on Thursday evening when he was struck by a hit-and-run driver while delivering daily papers after school. Fred was on Yonge St. south and was struck from behind, his wheel being completely wrecked. Fortunately he fell towards the sidewalk, suffering severe cuts on the head, cheek, nose and ear, as well as suffering shock. No bones were broken.

The lad was stunned and was discovered at the side of the road by Archie Cousins. The motorist failed to stop and police are working on the theory his automobile must have been damaged by the mishap. So far no eye-witnesses are available. Chief Constable Fisher Dunham is investigating.

WITH THE FORCES

Sgt. Frank Hill, R.C.A.F., has returned home from Newfoundland. He expects to receive his discharge early in the New Year.

C.Q.M.S. Reg. Southwood, Long Branch camp, spent the weekend at his home.

OS Isben Webb, R.C.N.V.R., a former employee of the Collis Leather Co., is on leave from the navy prior to receiving his discharge.

Cpl. Alan Stephenson, Hamilton, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Stephenson.

Wren Ninette Hollingsworth has been posted from Ottawa to Esquimaut, B.C.

Pte. Ernie Davis, who returned from overseas a few months ago, has received his discharge.

Sgt. Albert Holman, R.C.O.C., Montreal, Que., reported for discharge to No. 2, D.D., Toronto, this week.

Sgt. Alfred Bolsby, R.C.A.F., has received his discharge after five years on active service. He is residing in Aurora.

Dr. Devins is chairman of the board, a post he has held for 24 of the 25 years he has been on the board. Mr. Davis has been a trustee for close to 20 years.

With the formation of a Home and School Association and plans being made for a new school, interest in the school board elections are keener than in many years and it is believed several new candidates will be nominated.

Fred Babcock's term as hydro commissioner has expired and he will again be a candidate for office.

'Our Town Art' Raises $100 For Memorial Fund

Over $100 was raised for the Aurora Board of Trade Memorial Site Fund by Aurora's group of 12 artists whose exhibition, 'Our Town Art', was well received both as visual entertainment and a cultural delight.

Following classes on Friday afternoon, the high school auditorium was redecorated with dull grey and the lighting re-vamped to provide an appropriate setting for the 77 oils, water colors and sketches on display. Bertram Wilson, Aurora commercial traveler, was top exhibitor with 12 oils, including such home scenes as Glenville Pond and The Back Street, Newmarket. Roland Middle of the high school staff had 11 pieces on display and familiar to all without reference to the catalogue were Aurora Back Street, The Far Horizon, Aurora and Hill And Dale, Aurora. He also had several pieces of sculpture and wood-work on display.

Vaughan Williams, returned ex-airman who heads the Aurora group and hopes to study in New York, had a striking display of eight including oils, water colors and tempera drawing. Two were scenes from Prince Edward Island, while most vivid was his Frozen Music.

C. W. Kettlewell, Toronto commercial artist, had seven pieces of work on exhibit. Kenneth Ives and Mrs. K. Carman of St. Andrew's College both had some outstanding bits which attracted attention, as did three landscapes by Dr. Percy Robinson. Betty Cody had six pictures hung, her two flower studies especially showing her skill.

The school quartet of Cosimo LoPatriello, Murray Oliver, Peggy Guntion and Joan Hill were not far behind the adults in ability, especially the two boys, Murray Oliver with eight oils and Cosimo LoPatriello with five.

Among the Aurora school children who had work on display were John King, Mary Wassink, Murray Blair, David Crystdale and Anne Stephenson.

Twenty paintings from Aurora homes were loaned as an exhibit including two Franz Johnson's and the work of other well-known Canadian artists.

Pupils Publish 16-Page School Christmas Edition

Editors Michael Maughan and Bruce Underhill, and their staff, after much "blood, sweat and tears," have succeeded in putting on the street the first number of volume two of the Aurora public school "School Paper," and Mike and Bruce as well as all the rest can take a well earned bow. Yeah school!

The 16-page Christmas edition sells for two cents and is done by mimeograph. The proceeds go to the school literary society fund of which Hugh McRae is president.

Among the contributors, aside from the editors, are Nora Knowles, Beth Thompson, Keith Kincaid, Muriel Stephenson, Margaret Bull, Barbara Hayes, Mary Rose, Mary Adams, Ann McRae and Heather Moffat. The poet's nook finds timely contributions by G. H. Bruce, Yvonne Squibb, Ann Loos, Ross Linton, Norma Hutchinson and Marilyn Thomson. Bill Lloyd, Shirley Woodward and Joan Case are responsible for the art work.

From the news items we learn that to the end of November the pupils purchased $407.50 in war savings stamps; that the school senior soccer team won four of five games played; that Summer's soccer eleven won the school championship.

In a foreword Donald Webster of the staff says: "I expect that the editors and those who assisted them have found nothing so accomplished without work. This paper is the result of their efforts. If it pleases you tell them so. If it does not please you make helpful suggestions to them."

HELIUM FOR TIRES

Helium has been used successfully to inflate large airplane tires, reducing the total aircraft weight and increasing range. It takes 92-lb. of air to inflate a 110-inch tire but only 13-lb. of helium. This represents a saving of 156-lb. for the two main wheels of each airplane.

Honor Retiring Reeve At Last Council Meeting

Taken so completely by surprise that he was visibly affected by the gesture, Reeve George Leary was presented with a cane, and a beautiful basket of flowers for Mrs. Leary by the council and its ex-reeve, C. E. Toole, on Saturday afternoon at the conclusion of the 1945 sessions.

Deputy-Reeve L. P. Evans said in making the presentation that the retirement of Mr. Leary was learned with regret. He had served faithfully for 17 years in the council, he said. Not always were the members in agreement, but one thing that could be said for the retiring reeve, he never held animosity, and differences were soon forgotten by him, Mr. Evans continued. The deputy-reeve expressed the hope that Mr. Leary would find the gift a remembrance of many pleasant memories of his long term of office. The flowers were in appreciation of the good will of Mrs. Leary who "must have made many sacrifices in order that her husband might serve."

Mr. Leary said he found it difficult to make reply and that words were inadequate to express his feelings. His retirement, he said, was due to his state of health which had not been too good for a couple of years. He paid tribute to the good spirit that had prevailed among the councillors, and the splendid work of the clerk and treasurer, John Crawford.

Councillor Ed. Logan said that at times he feared he had been a "lone wolf," but differences never upset the harmony of the council. In speaking of the next year, Mr. Logan said: "We regret the retirement of Mr. Leary, and we realize that our deputy-reeve will aspire to the office, in which event I shall be a candidate for the position of deputy-reeve." Mr. Logan has been on the council six years. Councillor Les. Harper said that he had been a member of council three years and had never missed a meeting. He said he would make no decision about next year at this time. Ivan McLaughlin, who is just completing his first year on the council, likewise said he had not made any decision about what he might do next year about staying on the council or retiring. Both speakers paid tribute to Mr. Leary and his long service.

The township clerk, Mr. Crawford, stated that the financial picture was very bright in Whitchurch and congratulated the council on their foresight in placing an order for a new road grader. The township has over 2,000 tax payers, he said, indicating the steady growth of the municipality.

Ex-Warden Earl Toole said he was not present to make a speech, but wished to be on hand to witness the presentation to an old colleague in council. The council, he said, had a record to be proud of and every member was entitled to serve again. It was with regret that the municipality was losing Mr. Leary in public office, yet he said he wanted to commend him for carrying out his pledge made a year ago.

A. V. Nolan, publisher of the Stouffville Tribune, responded for the press.

Whitchurch Reeve Terms Annexation 'High Hat'

Reeve Leary and members of Whitchurch township council Dec. 8 termed the action of the Ontario municipal board as hasty when a letter was read from the board saying that it had confirmed the request of ratepayers on the west end of Park Ave. outside Newmarket limits, and of the Newmarket town council to have that section annexed to Newmarket. Council contemplated offering some resistance to the move. The annexation, the board stated, would be effective Dec. 31, 1945, at midnight. "High hat piece of business," was the way Reeve Leary criticised the matter, which now seems to be closed.

W. S. Gibson & Son, surveyors, submitted a blue print of a subdivision for Lake Simcoe Ice Co., but no action was taken at this time.

The department of highways notified the council that permission was approved by them whereby $1,500 additional may be spent on roads bringing the total appropriation for 1945 to $21,500.

Elmer Starr, weed inspector, said the municipality would help him work a great deal if they cut the weeds on the roadside.

"When I press a private owner to cut his weeds, he invariably points to the neglected weeds along the roads," said Mr. Starr.

No action was taken on a request from the Aurora high school board which asked the council to join in urging the county council to define the limits of the Aurora high school area in accordance with the plan of the department of education.

Deputy-Reeve Evans said he would like to have the facts clearly as to the township's position in the matter before he was in a position to vote.

The county treasurer reminded the council that the county levy of $18,969.91 would fall due on Dec. 20. Treasurer John Crawford said the item would be attended to as usual before the due date.

A strip of land bordering the west shore of Lake Musselman was expropriated by a by-law passed at this meeting. The land in question lies between the water's edge and the roadway, at lot 12, and has been the subject of legal action in the past.

Ed. McNally and Milford Rose told the council that they had been taxed $7.55 and $5.16 respectively for road oil at Lake Musselman, whereas they were led to believe the maximum cost would be not more than $1.50 per property.

Clerk Crawford explained the apportionment of cost was made on an assessment basis so that those who benefited but did not live directly on the main road would share the cost. Half was paid by the area and half by the township.

On three or four farms affected the basis seemed unjust in the opinion of councillors and a resolution was passed reducing those affected to a payment of $2 each.

A grant of $10 was made to the Stouffville horse show on motion of Councillors Logan and Harper.

INFLUENCED CUSTOMS

The Germans, perhaps more than any other colonists, influenced Christmas customs in the United States, which celebrates Christmas more extensively than any other. Our concept of Santa Claus is wholly from Germany and the Christmas tree in the home is another custom that came over with German immigrants in the last century.

ST. NICK LIVED IN 4TH CENTURY

On Christmas Eve, Canadian children will be tucked snugly in their beds — while visions of sugarplums dance through their heads. Listening breathlessly, they may hear sleighbells in the snow. Santa will be about, his pack laden with dolls and drums, painted carts and picture books, and unrationed good cheer for young and old.

The real, live St. Nicholas was born in Asia Minor and lived during the fourth century. The Dutch settlers brought many legends centering around him to America. He was an extraordinarily studious youth and, after his father died, much concerned about the fortune he had inherited. He, therefore, conceived the idea of supplying financially embarrassed maidens with dowries, the young ladies having no idea where the money came from.

In his youth, Nicholas visited the Holy Land, and as a result, desired to spend his life in a monastery. However, he was bidden to "Go on; live among men." Later, as the Archbishop of Myra, he was renowned for his graciousness, kindness and understanding of children.

The feast of St. Nicholas, patron saint of Russia, is celebrated on the sixth of December. On that day, in many European countries, the children are visited by St. Nicholas and given nuts, apples, candy and small gifts, providing they have been well behaved throughout the year.

The modern Canadian conception of Santa Claus was first expressed by Washington Irving who, in 1809, described him as a tubby, jolly little fellow speeding across the sky in a reindeer-drawn sleigh.

In 1822, using Irving's description and supplying additional details from his own imagination, Clement Clarke Moore told his children the story of The Visit of St. Nicholas. A year later, the poem was published in the Troy Sentinel. Many years passed, however, before Dr. Moore, being a professor of divinity, publicly acknowledged having written the now famous poem, which has been translated into several foreign languages.

Thomas Nast, creator of the GOP elephant, the Tammany tiger and the Democratic donkey, apparently dressed Santa in his red suit through a series of sketches appearing in Harper's illustrated weekly.

WANDERING OLD LADY ITALY'S SANTA CLAUS

Santa Claus doesn't visit children in Italy. It isn't because they are all naughty, but because there is no Santa Claus—in Italy.

No one runs down to a well-decorated tree on Christmas morning to look for presents. Brightly colored flowers decorate the room instead of Christmas trees, and presents are not exchanged until Jan. 6.

On that night, an old, old lady, La Befana, walks from house to house and leaves a present beside each little child she visits.

Exactly 1,940 years ago, according to the Italian legend, La Befana was very busy sweeping her kitchen when several men dressed like kings stopped in front of her cottage. They asked her where Bethlehem was, but she had never heard of it.

The men told her about a baby which had been born in Bethlehem, and mentioned a star which had been guiding them. The old lady wished she could accompany them when they left her in search of the infant Jesus.

But La Befana stayed home. It was getting too dark out, and besides, the baby could wait until tomorrow. Later that night she noticed the sky quivering with light. The clouds seemed to take the form of angels. All thought of sleep left her. Rising, she carefully wrapped two gifts for the Holy Baby, then ran out into the night in the direction the kings had gone.

Fast as she hurried, she had not reached Bethlehem when the star disappeared and dawn filled the sky. She frantically asked the way to Bethlehem, but no one could tell her.

And so La Befana has constantly travelled since that day, searching for the Christ Child. On the Epiphany, 12 days after Christmas, she goes from house to house, looking into the faces of babies. With each she leaves a gift, hoping that at last she will give her presents to the right child.

Christmas Spirit Evident At Elm Grove Meeting

The Christmas spirit was in the air at the Pringle home in Baldwin when the Elm Grove W.I. members and friends were entertained by Mrs. Geneva Jewel. The house was gaily decorated with evergreens, candles and a tree.

Mrs. Johnston, the president, opened the meeting in the usual manner and was followed by the business. The main topics of discussion were a dance and the entertaining of the boys and girls in the services. This has taken quite a bit of thought as the Elm Grove W.I. extends to Georgina, North Gwillimbury and Sutton. However, a satisfactory plan is at last underway.

Mrs. L. Ley and Mrs. A. Hamilton were in charge of the Christmas program. The singing of carols was first on the program and the Christmas spirit had everyone in its power and all sang lustily.

Mrs. Hamilton read an interesting paper on the first Canadian Christmas.

Mrs. Ley had a surprise contest which caused much excitement, with Mrs. Ben Tomlinson being the winner of a can of precious salmon, on which she sold five-cent tickets with Mrs. Crawford the envied winner.

The December issue of the Elm Grove Echo was read by Mrs. Smallwood.

A special lunch was served by Mrs. Jewel and Mrs. Johnston.

Holstein Assn. To Sponsor National Judging Match

TROOPS DROP ARMS TO JOIN IN CAROLS

It was Christmas Eve, 1914, between Armentiers and Arras, while Gordon Highlanders huddled in trenches when somebody remembered the day.

"Jim, let's sing," one said to Pte. James Sutherland-Watt of Norfolk, Va.

Jim pleaded off, but someone else started Silent Night, Holy Night, and soon Jim and the whole Scot regiment had joined in.

When the last refrain subsided, from the opposite trenches arose other voices — attuned in Stille Nacht. Then all night long Christmas carols rang from trench to trench in strange tongues while cannon and flares from other sectors lit the sky.

At the customary "zero" hour, the British soldiers saw gray-clad figures making their way out of the opposite trenches. A few shots were fired. Then it was seen that the Germans carried no arms. Scots leaped from their trenches, likewise unarmed, only to be ordered back.

LOUD WELCOME

Spanish settlers brought the custom of hailing Christmas with fire-crackers and bonfires, a procedure that astounds northerners in Louisiana.

YULE LOG

From pagan Scandinavian worship of Thor comes the yule log, lighted with a brand from last year's log.

The announcement has been made that the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada will again this year sponsor a special judging contest amongst calf club members throughout the dominion in connection with the all-Canadian selections of Holstein cattle. Prizes amounting to $100 are being offered to the winners.

The contest is open to all boys and girls who are this year showing Holstein calves in their clubs.

From amongst the animals nominated for all-Canadian consideration, a committee of judges will select up to six in each class. Photos of these selections will be published in the December issue of the Holstein-Friesian Journal. From these pictures, a committee consisting of the judges at the major shows throughout the dominion will choose an all-Canadian and a reserve all-Canadian in each class.

From the published photographs, the competing boys and girls must designate their choice for all-Canadian and reserve all-Canadian in each class. Points will be awarded for each decision that agrees with the official version, and the prizes will be awarded on the basis of the total points scored.

LATE CHRISTMAS

There are still millions of Christians who observe January 6 or January 7 as Christmas. They allow for the 12 days' difference in the old calendar and the new. The Eastern Orthodox observe January 7. In North Carolina one church group observes January 6, as do a number of other sects.

COMPLETES COURSE

Robert McElroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McElroy, has completed the ten-month certificate course in business through the University of Toronto extension school, and has been awarded his certificate. Graduation exercises took place on Wednesday, Dec. 12. The course was open to ex-service personnel only.

Mr. McElroy entered the course following his return from Italy where he fought with the Irish Regiment of Canada until wounded in action shortly after the Ortona action.

Legend Says St. Nick Was Shy Of 'Thanks'

The stocking custom is said to have started with St. Nicholas, original Santa Claus, a Greek bishop, Nicholas of Myra, who lived in the fourth century. He was both generous and shy, and hated to be thanked for the presents he was continually making to those in need.

Once he climbed to a roof top and dropped a purse of gold down the chimney so that he would not be seen. The money, instead of falling in the fire, lodged in a child's stocking that had been hung up to dry on the mantelpiece.

His act became known, and thereafter whenever unexpected gifts came from unknown sources they were attributed to St. Nicholas.

Christmas Carols Written By Inspired Clergymen

Since that first Christmas when the angels sang Glory to God on Highest, music has been a vital part of the holiday season, schools, churches and homes ring with joyous hymns and songs. The first singing of carols in the streets, we are told, was in the year 1224.

When we think of Christmas we think of the pictures you see on Christmas cards of houses almost buried in snow, candles burning in windows, and carolers grouped around a doorway, singing with all their hearts to the distant peal of church bells.

Christmas must have been picturesque in those days, no automobiles whizzing by, just the merry jingle of sleigh bells.

Hark, the Herald Angels Sing was written in 1730 by Charles Wesley, younger brother of John Wesley, who founded the Methodist denomination, but was not published until 1856. Inspiration for the poem came to Wesley as he walked to church one Christmas morning.

Bishop Phillip Brooks, rector of the Holy Trinity church in Philadelphia, was asked by his Sunday-school children to write a Christmas song, so in 1868 he produced Oh Little Town of Bethlehem. After writing the hymn he went to the church organist and asked him to furnish a tune. The organist, Lewis H. Redner, says the air came to him in a Christmas dream, and it was finished for the next day's services.

But most beloved of all Christmas music is Holy Night, Silent

Night, written, we are told, by Father Josef Mohr, who found himself without means of music for the Christmas services because mice had eaten the bellows of the organ. Father Josef was greatly troubled over the calamity, and as he returned from administering rites to a dying woman he stood on a hilltop, at midnight, and it came to him that it must have been just such a silent night that the Christ child was born, so he went home and composed the words to our famous Christmas hymn.

Then, of course, it needed music, so he went to his old schoolmaster, Franz Gruber. And so Franz played his guitar and Father Josef sang a Christmas hymn that will never die.

Few think of this lovely hymn without remembering how we watched our radio dial at Christmas time for its rendition by one of the most beloved of singers, Madame Schuman-Heink.

Oh, those were days of simplicity, when rectors casting about for suitable Christmas programs turned poets, and organists turned composers to furnish the music, music that goes on forever.

They would, indeed, be gratified if they could hear our present Christmas day programs, pouring out of a little cabinet in the corner, their labors of love have come a long way from that steel guitar and a gentle voice replacing a nibbled bellows, they'd be surprised to learn their flock now does its Christmas shopping to their inspirational tunes.

PURITANS PUT BAN ON CHRISTMAS JOY

Puritanism brought over with it in the Mayflower the anti-Christmas feelings.

In 1659 the general court of Massachusetts, following the example of the English parliament, enacted a law providing: "any body who is found observing, by abstinance from labor, feasting, or any other way, any such day as Christmas, shall pay for such offence five shillings." The law remained in effect until 1681.

The repeal, however, was bitter to old Puritanisms, which kept up an even protest down to the early part of the present century.

BURNING YULE LOG OLD COUNTRY CUSTOM

Centuries ago huge fires were built in the great baronial halls in England on Christmas eve and servants brought in a log that was to burn throughout the Christmas feasting. It was customary to save a brand from each year's fire to light the next one with. If the log was properly burned it was believed that the devil was powerless to do any mischief in the household.

One story has it that stockings were originally hung by fireplaces burning Yule logs in order to absorb the odor of the burning wood and thus give the wearer protection from evil.

We like to think of our customers as friends. There is no better way to express our friendship than by the old, old wish that grows dearer through the ages:

DOWN THE CENTRE

O.H.A. groupings find the leanest entry from North York in any peacetime year. Perhaps it is a bit too early yet to find teams organized to play. It can not be from lack of playing material but solely the matter of finding leadership. Small town Ontario as a whole has come back mightily strong and it seems too bad to see the area as a whole falling behind.

Not a single intermediate team is entered, Brougham Bears in the south Ontario league and Orillia camp or Collingwood being the closest. H. Bell of Markham is convener of the district junior B group which may well be called The Big Six before it ends.

Richmond Hill, even with a better line-up than in other years and more experience, is going to find it mighty tough going. Oshawa Bees and University of Toronto, both with artificial ice behind them as well as bigger connections, will provide plenty of opposition. Oshawa will have the overflow from the Generals while Varsity in pre-war years performed in the junior A series where they should be this season, too. Toronto Chapmans, a surprise entry, Scarborough Rangers, who are rounding up a dandy team, and Markham complete the group and the winner will be mighty hard to beat for the O.H.A. title.

Oakville dropped back to the C series which will mean in all probability that Ev Smith, the Port Credit defence star, and "Porky" Galbraith, forward ace of the Ports, will likely be with the Rowntree boys since they played B last winter and the O.H.A. generally rules that a player can not be kept from improving his hockey playing by being forced to play C hockey when he could play in B.

Stafford Smythe, son of the redoubtable Connie Smythe and ex-Upper Canada player, will add a lot of color to junior hockey as coach of the Varsity blues. Hugh Smythe, a brother, is playing on the team.

Markham is still convinced that it has a team which will give them all a run. Especially so since the rink is being streamlined this season. The fair board which owns the building has authorized the spending of $1,000 for a new lighting system and a repaint job. Markham for years was one of the poorest lit rinks in the country so the news that they'll be able to see the puck without eye strain will be welcome to the players. Richmond Hill can stand some lighting improvement too, especially at centre ice and the bluelines.

If we were running the O.H.A., we would make an inspection of all arenas for lights and act in accepting entries according to what we found.

Stouffville is the lone junior C nomination and it has had the misfortune to strike a tough group in its initial season with long trips over snow territory to Lakefield, Lindsay, Port Hope, Port Perry, Whitby, Uxbridge and Peterboro junior B entry. It might be an idea for Eddie Crouch and his associates to ask for a split in the group. Uxbridge, Whitby and Port Perry all go together while the other four teams would be in a compact group. Regardless of what its grouping may be, Stouffville still has tough opposition. Whitby and Port Perry have both had strong minor hockey teams in other years while Lakefield and Lindsay are naturally tough opposition.

Beat the drums for one Joe Gilhooley whom we saw in action last Friday night as Barrie Colts (junior B) took a brilliant 7-3 win in an exhibition tilt from DeLaSalle Oaklands. Gilhooley, last year with Oshawa junior P's and now in the Armored Corps at Camp Borden, was pivot on the first string Barrie line and set what must be a new scoring record by banging home six goals in a row. In other words, young Gilhooley performed the "hat trick" twice in a row before one of his teammates scored.

We know that many players have scored more than six goals in a single game but the question still remains to be answered about straight goals. The National Hockey League has no reply and it will be a matter of research to find a parallel. Any of our readers who can enlighten us on the subject will earn our orchid award. How about dropping us a line (Ab Hulse, Aurora) if you can best that one.

Gilhooley played several games this year for the Barrie Flyers in junior A but the Flyers figured he would return to Oshawa on discharge. The Colts executive are naturally enough leaving no stone unturned to try and keep Gilhooley for the season. The feat is all the more remarkable since Brother Michael has a pretty good club at De LaSalle which will enter the prep school series as favorites for the group.

Dick Piller, who played for Markham juniors last winter, is with the Barrie club this season and he is performing in fine style for the Colts this year. The team is coached by Eddie Burke, ex-No. 2 Rams, who handled the Barrie junior B entry last winter. Given a couple more players, Burke will have a contending team and the welcome is on the mat for any district aspirants who would like a trial with Barrie Colts.

Up north there is a coterie of our old friends in action on the ice lanes. Gar Preston, Aurora's gift to the 1933 Redmen dominion champions and who played with Newmarket camp two years ago, is thinking of performing for Kirkland Lake Canadian Legion intermediate team. Joe Jannarelli and Teddy Lister, the two speed artists who gave Brampton camp that added zip needed to defeat No. 23 B.T.C. for the group title in 1943 and who performed sensationally for Brampton the year after, are out of the army after service in the Mari-times and teamed up with Buffalo-Ankerite seniors in the Timmins senior circuit.

Sparky Vail, ex-Newmarket Redmen hockeyist and Aurora Blue Ribbons ball player, is zooming up the ice as per usual for McIntyre mines. Vail just won't retire and he seems very effective year after year. Paul Paquette, who back in 1940 was with Barrie Colts and selected as an all-star junior B defence-man that year, is back from overseas where he won a decoration, and is playing for Pep Kelly at North Bay with the string C.P.R. City League team.

Speaking of decorations, another well-known North York athlete has hit the Glory Road in the person of Jess Turton who hails from out Lloydstown way. Cpl. Turton will be remembered as the goalie from the Schomberg team in the district bush league back in 1940. He received the British Empire Medal for his fine work in Italy.

Glad to see too that our old friend, Orville Burke, ex-quarterback of Ottawa Roughriders and who played district intermediate hockey with Camp Borden and A-9 Rams, has been awarded the M.B.E. Orville is equally good at any sport and we did our first army sports stint as his aide-de-camp.

Ross Folkeard is heading the Roche's Point entry in the Newmarket town league and the northerners with a wide territory to choose from will be the real dark horses of the circuit.

Mickey Smith, ex-cycling star and back from a stint with the navy, is expected to maestro the vets' team in camtown as well as playing a bit of goal. Last chore Smith did in the twine cage was as sub-goalie for the championship Sutton Greenshirt squad in 1942.

Bruce Greig, who toiled with junior Redmen and last year was a member of the Vandroft team in the Aurora town league, is said to be readying the merchants' entry with plenty of talent to choose from.

Capt. Bing Caswell will handle the boys from No. 11 I.T.B. (Infantry Training Battalion), hope that's the correct moniker, with Lieut. Ingram assisting him as well as R.S.M. Syd Bowman. Will seem mighty funny just the same to see the bench sans Blimp McDonald, sans Alex Stewart, sans Bernie Gantner, sans Lennie Wadsworth, sans... you can take your choice! While not likely to turn out a team to compare with other years, the soldiers won't be the underdogs by any means.

Herb Simpson attended the meeting of the Aurora rink committee and his Ballantrae sextet will be back large as life and twice as strong this year. Herb will have Bowdway, Ike Harper, Jake Baker and all the rest in action. Zephyr Blues, so far as we can learn, have not as yet definitely announced that they will be back in the league. Herb Simpson says, "Why heck, they've just got to come back to give us a chance to win the Bowser Cup. No siree, they've got to defend the cup". Secretary Herb Holman says he telephoned the North Ontario lads and they were to phone back if they weren't playing and he's still awaiting a call.

Nip Spooner will have his ordinance outfit on the ice perhaps this week, certainly plenty of time before the season opens. The soldier boys received $150 from the canteen funds to help them get started and while little is known about the strength of the players on hand, the depot should have its best team in at least two years.

Harold Botham is looking forward to another Vandroft-Aurora combination. As he expects to go to hospital towards the end of January, he affirms he is through with hockey. He knows that Harry and Mickey Sutton, the Nigh brothers and most of the younger lads are ready to go again but he reports Ross Folliott and Leonard Shropshire, both married men since last season, as needing a bit of coaxing though chances are that if the boys promise to bring the little lady to all the games, the necessary permission from H.Q. will be given.

Ray Lloyd, home after serving with the R.C.A.F., is vartin' to go once again. The Aurora league should get all the teams together and elect officers and draw a schedule as soon as possible as Newmarket is well advanced with its plans. Each league should stand on its own feet and have its own league play-offs. After all four teams have met, there is no doubt that an interlocking schedule would go over big with the fans of both towns with the points to count in the league standing. From a gates standpoint the both leagues would benefit by such an arrangement. In the play-offs where gates are necessarily high-

PEACE ON EARTH

The world has turned to peace and friendliness now. Once again we are working hand in hand, so peace will stay with us, so friendliness will endure.

Toward building a lasting accord among nations each of us is privileged to play a part. Few of us will sit at the peace table to weigh gains and losses and costs... few of us can measurably help to straighten out a broken world.

But let us remember that nations are only neighborhoods of people, that each of us can contribute toward peace through thoughtfulness, through friendliness.

Given a couple more players, Burke will have a contending team and the welcome is on the mat for any district aspirants who would like a trial with Barrie Colts.

Up north there is a coterie of our old friends in action on the ice lanes. Gar Preston, Aurora's gift to the 1933 Redmen dominion champions and who played with Newmarket camp two years ago, is thinking of performing for Kirkland Lake Canadian Legion intermediate team. Joe Jannarelli and Teddy Lister, the two speed artists who gave Brampton camp that added zip needed to defeat No. 23 B.T.C. for the group title in 1943 and who performed sensationally for Brampton the year after, are out of the army after service in the Mari-times and teamed up with Buffalo-Ankerite seniors in the Timmins senior circuit.

Sparky Vail, ex-Newmarket Redmen hockeyist and Aurora Blue Ribbons ball player, is zooming up the ice as per usual for McIntyre mines. Vail just won't retire and he seems very effective year after year. Paul Paquette, who back in 1940 was with Barrie Colts and selected as an all-star junior B defence-man that year, is back from overseas where he won a decoration, and is playing for Pep Kelly at North Bay with the string C.P.R. City League team.

Speaking of decorations, another well-known North York athlete has hit the Glory Road in the person of Jess Turton who hails from out Lloydstown way. Cpl. Turton will be remembered as the goalie from the Schomberg team in the district bush league back in 1940. He received the British Empire Medal for his fine work in Italy.

Glad to see too that our old friend, Orville Burke, ex-quarterback of Ottawa Roughriders and who played district intermediate hockey with Camp Borden and A-9 Rams, has been awarded the M.B.E. Orville is equally good at any sport and we did our first army sports stint as his aide-de-camp.

Ross Folkeard is heading the Roche's Point entry in the Newmarket town league and the northerners with a wide territory to choose from will be the real dark horses of the circuit.

Mickey Smith, ex-cycling star and back from a stint with the navy, is expected to maestro the vets' team in camtown as well as playing a bit of goal. Last chore Smith did in the twine cage was as sub-goalie for the championship Sutton Greenshirt squad in 1942.

Bruce Greig, who toiled with junior Redmen and last year was a member of the Vandroft team in the Aurora town league, is said to be readying the merchants' entry with plenty of talent to choose from.

Capt. Bing Caswell will handle the boys from No. 11 I.T.B. (Infantry Training Battalion), hope that's the correct moniker, with Lieut. Ingram assisting him as well as R.S.M. Syd Bowman. Will seem mighty funny just the same to see the bench sans Blimp McDonald, sans Alex Stewart, sans Bernie Gantner, sans Lennie Wadsworth, sans... you can take your choice! While not likely to turn out a team to compare with other years, the soldiers won't be the underdogs by any means.

Herb Simpson attended the meeting of the Aurora rink committee and his Ballantrae sextet will be back large as life and twice as strong this year. Herb will have Bowdway, Ike Harper, Jake Baker and all the rest in action. Zephyr Blues, so far as we can learn, have not as yet definitely announced that they will be back in the league. Herb Simpson says, "Why heck, they've just got to come back to give us a chance to win the Bowser Cup. No siree, they've got to defend the cup". Secretary Herb Holman says he telephoned the North Ontario lads and they were to phone back if they weren't playing and he's still awaiting a call.

Nip Spooner will have his ordinance outfit on the ice perhaps this week, certainly plenty of time before the season opens. The soldier boys received $150 from the canteen funds to help them get started and while little is known about the strength of the players on hand, the depot should have its best team in at least two years.

Harold Botham is looking forward to another Vandroft-Aurora combination. As he expects to go to hospital towards the end of January, he affirms he is through with hockey. He knows that Harry and Mickey Sutton, the Nigh brothers and most of the younger lads are ready to go again but he reports Ross Folliott and Leonard Shropshire, both married men since last season, as needing a bit of coaxing though chances are that if the boys promise to bring the little lady to all the games, the necessary permission from H.Q. will be given.

Ray Lloyd, home after serving with the R.C.A.F., is vartin' to go once again. The Aurora league should get all the teams together and elect officers and draw a schedule as soon as possible as Newmarket is well advanced with its plans. Each league should stand on its own feet and have its own league play-offs. After all four teams have met, there is no doubt that an interlocking schedule would go over big with the fans of both towns with the points to count in the league standing. From a gates standpoint the both leagues would benefit by such an arrangement. In the play-offs where gates are necessarily higher, we would like to see each league have its own show with the ultimate winners meeting along with representatives from Richmond Hill, South Simcoe

and elsewhere for district honors.
Without comment and with no
axe to grind, here are the comparative figures for the Aurora arena as supplied by Clerk
"Jimmy" Willis for the past two years of operation. 1943-44 season: receipts, $577.74; arena expense without debenture payment, $331.58. The receipts are net after manager's fees are out.
1944-45 season: receipts, $1,278-40; arena expense, $1,307.07. The expense includes all repairs made but does not include the annual debenture payment.
Each year the town pays around $1,400 by way of retiring
the rink cost. This, however, will be written off in seven or eight years. Next year Aurora will be faced with extensive repairs to the rink. Only in the years when Aurora had a winning junior hockey team or there were large games, were the receipts sufficient for debenture payments. That a municipal arena is an asset beyond mere measurement in dollars and cents goes without saying. The return in character building, healthful recreation and checking juvenile delinquency is something that can not be assessed by figures.

Simcoe is planning a new artificial arena as part of its community war memorial effort and just to show that action can be obtained, consider the fact that the plans were only decided upon in the summer and already over $45,000 has been raised by public subscription. The objective is $55,000 and those charged with the responsibility of seeing it raised say they will have that amount by Christmas. Peterborough, Kitchener and Tillsonburg are other places well advanced towards community memorials.
At the recent elections Cobourg approved by a vote of 673-189
the building of a new rink (natural ice) by the municipality.
Home from overseas and back in the hockey whirl again is Harry Milroy, ace centre of Sutton Greenhirts for many years who, like Leon Smith and Herb Burchall, who carried the Sutton load for many years, was not in Canada when Sutton won its title. "Whammy", who hails from Highland Creek, broke into junior hockey with Markham
but played the best hockey of his career with the Greenhirts. He was also a nifty softball player.
Cliff Chapman, one of Ontario's most promising young riders when he enlisted with the R.C.A.F., is home. Cliff hasn't done any riding since he went overseas but still has his wheel,
although he says it's all over so far as racing is concerned.
Jake Koning, Richmond Hill,
better known in softball as "Jake the Umpire", is home in the Hill after three years of action during which time he won himself three pips. Henry Hollingshead, who played steady if not spectacular hockey for Schomberg, is back ready to play for Bob Moody once again despite harrowing experiences.
Aub Marshall, who provided
local color and substituted man-fully for the Newmarket Redmer
in '33, is another who made it back before yuletide. Ginger Hall once again is proving himself one of the best goalies in captivity by sparking Uptowns in the Ravina circuit. Hall will be remembered as the victim of

SNOW FLAKES

By GOLDEN GLOW

Everybody seems to think we must have snow for Christmas if it is to be a really truly Christmas. In our young days we associated Christmas with sleigh bells and Santa smothered in furs, to say nothing of his white whiskers! Sparkling, crisp snow and a full moon or at least bright, twinkling stars are all necessary and, of course, the evergreen Christmas tree! Always we trim our Christmas tree
with imitation snow for snow flakes seem to typify something connected with the spirit of Christmas.

I am writing this on Saturday,
Dec. 15, to have it in early
according to the wishes of Mr.
Editor, and as I wrote those words "the spirit of Christmas,"
like a flash the thought came,
"oh, I do hope nothing interferes with our listening on December 22 to the Mayor Of The Town broadcast when Lionel Barrymore has promised to again, as so often in past years, read
Charles Dickens' Christmas
Carol. Nobody seems to read it like Barrymore unless, perhaps, Maurice Boddington, former announcer over CFRB.

If we haven't as yet acquired the spirit of Christmas, then it surely is because we have no time to listen, for carol singing is a special feature of so many radio broadcasts these days and our own town can supply us if we have no time for the radio

that fluke shot of Don "Brains" Wilson which eliminated national juniors from the O.H.A. play-downs in 1933. Ten years later he was in the nets for Sutton
Greenhirts in their successful O.H.A. quest. Last year he played mercantile but announced earlier this season he would retire. It was Bill Stirling who coached Toronto Army last winter and Earl Holmes, ex-senior impressario who lured Ginger back to action.

Saw Rhys Thomson, ex-Toronto
army defenceman and former Leaf now in action at Varsity arena, sporting a busted proboscis from rugged hockey. The classic Thomson nose will be o.k., however, having been well set and Thomson still carries on with a guard.

Horace Kendall, coach of the St. Andrew's College basketball and hockey teams, says that Richmond Hill high have a powerhouse basketball team assembled for high school competition this season. The Hill boys took the measure of the Andean prep school entry who generally are a little better than the leading high school teams. Barry Collard, well-known young track star, along with Bill Neal are the leading lights on the Hill cage team. The Aurora and Newmarket entries will be well advised to watch out for the Hill this year according to Mr. Kendall.
The basketball league gets under way on January 14 and there are ten hectic weeks of play carded. The schedule is published elsewhere in the paper.

Fort Wayne Zollners the world's basketball champions, are listed to appear in Toronto on January 16 in Maple Leaf Gardens in a big charity affair that will give basketball its biggest moment in the Queen City. They will meet Rochester Royals. On the same bill of fare will be a clash between Toronto Varsity and Western U, another dynamite affair. We advise you to order tickets early for it should attract a big house. Basketball players, actual and would-be, as well as officials from the district would be especially advised to attend.
Seeing is believing when it comes to these American teams.

Billy Taylor, who last year was the toast of Newmarket town, appears to be coming into his own again after a sorry start with the Leafs. It is no secret that Taylor and owner, Connie Smythe, are not lovey-dovey but more or less on the outs and Taylor would not be unhappy elsewhere. He would have just about had his wish a few weeks back except for Happy Day who has a yen for Billy the Kid and for the fact that when a team
or owner wants to dispose of a player they set a price tag hardly warranted. Taylor won himself quite a district following last season and there are many who are pulling for Bill to unloose himself and rate back to pre-war form.

First Christmas card we received came from Chari Holmes, former Newmarket hockey and softball chieftain, now located at Stratford. His card reads: "May Christmas truly warm your heart; Good friends remem'ring, too, help make this special time
of year a pleasant time for YOU".
We always get a big lift out of receiving greetings from those who are only separated from us by mileage. We always get a big kick out of those handshakes and cheery greetings which abound at Noel, if not all the year round. We like to meet with friends tried and true to help prepare that tree for our pride and joy, to admire your tree too. We can smell that turkey now. Hear those bells!
We like to think we've got something original to say each year
but there's nothing much that can take the place of MERRY CHRISTMAS from the bottom of the heart to you, and you, and YOU.

GOSPEL ECHOES

LOVE'S INTERCESSION (Capt. Arthur Robinson,
"Salvation Army")

"Then said Jesus: 'Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.'—Luke 23-24.

Jesus must have been in a terrible state of suffering and exhaustion when He spoke these words. True, the horrors of crucifixion had only begun; yet the scourging with leaded thongs was enough to bring man to the verge of death; certainly to a state of weakness and agony that would excuse self-pity. Christ had endured the mocking; the double trial following desertion and betrayal.

We may say reverently, speaking of Jesus as a man, that these words were the result of habit. What a man says or does at a supreme moment in life depends largely on habits he has formed. A selfish coward who has indulged in selfishness all his days pushes before others out of the burning building or sinking ship; the hero is not created at the moment; he was in the making long before. So with Christ.

His unselfish existence upon earth made it possible to forget Himself even as the nails tore His flesh. He must have realized His utter helplessness; His hands so often obedient to His will to heal and bless men were powerless. When He healed the high priest's servant, it was the last act with His hands on earth. He could do no more. Yet the passion for "others" fills His soul.

His deep pity and love that foresees the results to these men for what they do bursts all around. He yet uses His Spiritual power to bless them and the tender words: "Forgive them" come straight from His heart.

These words were the commencement of His priestly intercession. Verily: He lost no time. Even as He presented the sacrifice He pleaded its virtue; henceforth He "liveth to make intercession."

Oh how the world is cold, indifferent, rejectful and scornful, yet He pleads for them, pleads on. He liveth the life of Heaven to plead for men. "Father forgive" is still his cry.

He was anxious we should learn to forgive also or He would not have said in the model prayer: "Forgive — as we forgive." But do we? Brooding over injuries received is not forgiving. We must not only forgive but we must forget. How often we remember the hurts and pity ourselves, brood over them, tell others about them, tell others we forgive but still remember the unkindness. This is not true forgiveness. We often tell of our helplessness to human souls. We have done our best yet failed. Ah! glimpse the nails again. Yet Christ prays, "Forgive them Father, they know not what they do." He used a weapon that shook Heaven, prayer. We too may intercede.

Standing true to our priest, Christ Jesus, we too may plead for men. Do you use this power? Are you praying for the wandering son or daughter? Do you still pray for souls? Where is your passion? Are you content to let people slip down to Hell? What does the picture of the Saviour praying for you, "Father forgive," mean to you? What love, what compassion. He is interceding for you. Will you not ask Him to forgive you? He will.

A Christmas Masquerade

By C. C. CUDNEY

Michael Parker slid into his Santa Claus suit with a groan. It had been a long, hard day and the stretch from seven to nine remained before the big department store would close.

Seated on his throne, he glanced resignedly down the long line approaching him. It was then that he saw her. The sight made him choke with emotion and his voice trembled when he spoke to the youngsters. Her turn came at last and he took her on his knee as he had done the others. "What's your name, little girl?" he asked in his gruffest voice.

"Marianne Parker," she answered softly.

"What would you like for Christmas?"

The answer was given instantly. "A doll and a carriage and . . . uh . . ." Marianne hesitated and poked a finger in Santa's padded stomach. " . . . is it real?" she asked.

Michael Parker had no answer to this and she looked up into his face. Suddenly she burst into tears. He longed to tear off his false whiskers and tell her that everything would be alright now. But instead he said, "What's the matter Marianne?"

"I want my daddy to come home," she sobbed. "I want that more than a doll or anything."

"Well, that's a pretty large order," said Santa, "but I'll see what I can do."

Out in the brisk night air Michael Parker regretted having fought with Wilson. The incident paraded across his memory, as it had a thousand times in the past few weeks. After months of studying and planning, he had gone to Wilson, the plant manager, with a scheme that was sure-fire for speeding up plane production. Wilson was brusque. "You stick to your engineering," he said. "I'll worry about production."

After telling Wilson, among other things, that he was the plant's biggest bottleneck, Parker angrily went home.

Bitter and restless, he had gone away three weeks ago, telling Elsie, his wife, that he was out to get a real job.

But no one would take him without a release. As the days passed he longed intensely to be with his family again but pride would not let him return a failure. Finally, funds running low, he took the job as Santa Claus for the Christmas holidays.

Snow was beginning to fall. Last minute shoppers were thinning out. He walked aimlessly among them, wondering where he could go, knowing that home, tonight of all nights, was out of the question.

Suddenly he remembered the words of a child who had sat on his knee that afternoon. When Michael, as Santa Claus, had asked him what he wanted for Christmas he had replied, "It doesn't matter. Even Christmas doesn't seem to matter any more. I just came here to keep up my mom's spirit." He paused. "There won't be any real Christmas for me until my pop comes home. He's in Africa, you know."

All at once Michael Parker realized that he, not Wilson, was the bottleneck.

With Elsie in his arms he murmured, "I've come back the same as I left—a fool, a complete fool."

"Well, not a complete fool," she countered with a smile. "Wilson telegraphed. He wants to know if you can be in Monday morning to supervise the setting up of your new system."

"But how did you know that I'd be here?"

Marianne ran out from her

DOUBLE-RING RITE MARKS CEREMONY

On Saturday, Nov. 10, a double-ring ceremony was performed at Elm St. church, Toronto, by Rev. W. C. Pierce, assisted by Rev. L. C. Honderick, when Vivian Dorothy Helena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Boyd, Markham township, was united in marriage to George William Fletcher, son of Mrs. James Fletcher, Hamilton, and the late James Fletcher.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding music played by Miss Violet Curtis, Newmarket. The bride was attired in a floor-length chiffon gown with a floor-length veil held in place by a halo headdress and carrying a bouquet of better time roses and mums.

Miss Dorcer Boyd, sister of the bride, was her only attendant and was gown in a floor-length daffodil chiffon gown with short veil and carrying a bouquet of gold and white mums.

Fred Fletcher was the groom's attendant. The ushers were Eldon and Arthur Boyd, brothers of the bride.

During the signing of the register, the bride's sisters, Jean and Bertha, sang a duet, Under His Wings.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on the sixth concession. The bride's mother received in a purple wool dress with a corsage of red briarcliff roses. The groom's mother assisted in a sky blue crepe dress and wore a corsage of pink talisman roses.

The happy couple left on a short honeymoon. The bride was attired in a sky blue dress with grey and navy accessories. On their return, they will reside in Hamilton.

bedroom and threw her arms around his waist. "I told mother," she announced.

An amused twinkle came into Michael Parker's eyes. "Oh, I see. I suppose you asked Santa Claus to send me home?"

"No."

"Well, that's strange. That's exactly what happened."

Marianne giggled. "Daddy," she said, "the next time you try to fool anyone you had better

NEWMARKET

In the west of Ireland, Christmas takes a pious note. A candle is left burning in the window as a guide to the Holy Family, should it be needing shelter. And food is left on the table between meals in case any souls from purgatory should revisit their old homes.

Aurora high school literary society, in an effort to improve the high school library, has joined a book club.

The Era and Express may be purchased in Aurora at Hess, Morning's, Whitelaw's and Willis.

Birthplace of Jesus Said In Rocky Cave

The "stable" in which Christ was born does not conform to the modern conception of the word. In Biblical times, places of shelter were hewn in rocky ledges: Judean travellers, frequently housed in such caves, welcomed joint tenancy with beasts because of the extra warmth provided by animals' bodies.

The birthplace of Jesus was such a cave. Now a grotto beneath Bethlehem's Church of the Nativity, the entire surface has been elaborately ornamented. Pilgrims to the shrine often wish, nonetheless reverently, that its original simplicity might have been preserved in which eternal stars

"Looked down where He lay The little Lord Jesus Asleep in the hay."

DECORATIVE SHADOWS

To achieve a colorful decorative effect, take a bowl of pine branches and make it "spill" backward toward the wall. Bright light from clear-glass Christmas lamps, either bunched in a bowl or concealed from view behind the bowl, create lovely shadow patterns. The shadows may be tinted by adding one or more larger lamps of contrasting color.

The Newmarket Era and Express office is open Saturday afternoons from 2 to 4 o'clock for the benefit of out of town patrons.

Mrs. W. H. Wilmut, Sharon, left, and Mrs. J. S. Amos, Woodstock, former presidents of the now dissolved United Farm Women of Ontario, discuss the past of the annual meeting of the shareholders of the United Farmers' Co-Operative Co. recently.

THE COMMON ROUND CHURCH ON WHEELS

At Pine Orchard, a little white church for many years has withstood the storms and sunshine, the heat and cold, all the vicissitudes of the Canadian climate.

It was a quiet looking little building which never seemed as if it were looking for or was fitted for adventure. Yet it started out as a Friends meeting house, and spent its first years in the silent, meditative atmosphere common to the Friends services. No doubt the decisions reached here, the words of scripture and of admonition heard there, influenced the lives of all in the community it so faithfully served.

Then the great majority of Friends moved elsewhere, but the little white church's services did not stop. It became the centre for a community church service, and till a new church was built, nobly did it fulfil its mission.

When the new church was built, it stood apart, a little like a white-haired elder who, seeing his work done, retires into the

COLORFUL LEGENDS SURROUND REINDEER

Reindeer figure often in northern myth and folklore. One version of the legend of Wavland, the smith, Wayland and his two brothers leave Finland for the south on their reindeer-drawn sleighs. The mountain elves try to stop them and Wavland's brothers lash their reindeer to force them by the elves. Angry because the three are deserting their homes, but even more because of the blows given the patient deer, the elves curse the two brothers, singing: "Because Slagfid struck his reindeer Because Eigel struck his reindeer Our hatred shall follow you."

Wavland they also curse for leaving Finland, but because "he struck not his reindeer" the curse is milder. The two brothers die violently and tragically, but Wavland, after many troubles, wins back the wife he had lost and becomes the "Smith of the Gods."

BOXING DAYS

In England, Boxing day — usually Dec. 26—formerly was the day when the old squires distributed Christmas boxes to the help on their estates. It has since become a sort of legalized blackmail—an excuse for delivery boys, the postman and others who have served you during the year to call and collect a tip.

SPRINKLED WITH WINE

Zenicians of Bosnia burn their Yule logs a day later than the rest of Europe. Just before sunrise the father drags the log into the home. As he enters the door he is doused with wine. The log itself is sprinkled with kernels of corn to assure the family a bountiful crop in summer.

WORLD'S LARGEST CABLE SHIP

The launching of the United Kingdom's postal service's latest acquisition, the cable ship Monarch, took place recently in the presence of the postmaster general, Lord Listowel. The ship is equipped with the most up to date equipment for laying deep-sea cables and is probably the largest ship of its kind. It is 480 feet long and is fitted with four cable tanks having a capacity of 170,000 cubic feet.

GREETINGS AND BEST WISHES

More than any other people on earth the Canadian people have much to be thankful for this Christmas Day. On this beloved anniversary we can proclaim our loyalty to the standards of our land — written down by great citizens of the past for all posterity, inspired by the teachings of the great Saviour whose birth we celebrate. Those are the standards of liberty, equality and unselfishness, by which we can forever live in happiness . . . for which we have fought, against the powerful forces of greed, tyranny and hate.

It is our faith in true concepts and in HIM who invested them in us, that will lead us to triumph . . .

Dad is home again!

Christmas candles will burn brighter this year and Christmas turkeys have a new and special flavour for the thousands of Canadians who will be sitting down to their first Christmas dinner with the family circle complete. And many a childish face will glow in the candlelight because "dad" takes his place at the head of the table again — with his strange tales from Italy, from France, Germany or the Pacific.

But even as the candles are lit and the heaped plates go round, Canadians will pause and remember — remember those family groups that will never be complete—those thousands of desolate and homeless in Europe — that great army of children who have been frightened and hurt and starved by a war not of their making.

Let us therefore make a solemn resolve never again to allow the powers of darkness — greed, selfishness and mistrust — to put out the candles of Christmas, those brave lights that symbolize the warm love and kindness that came into the world two thousand years ago.

GIFTS OF GOLD

By KARIN ASBRAND
"Even today, as in the days of old, we are sometimes blessed with gifts of gold."
Miss Letty read the inscription over a life-size picture of the manger scene.
The sight of bright tinsel decorations, the sound of carols and the smell of holly and fir on the crisp air between the stores filled her with a nostalgia that almost unnerved her.
She had intended to shed 20 years of her life like a worn cloak, forgetting that she had spent her best days making a heaven on earth for her crippled mother so that her knight had wearied of waiting. Now she was going shopping for a family that had never been hers except in her thoughts, a plain little girl with pigtails and freckles and a sturdy small boy with pudgy hands and round, expectant eyes.

She wondered what Larry Haines was doing. Poor Larry! She wished she might have said "yes" to his persistent wooing. The girl with whom he had run off had not bothered to make a decent home for him. Finally they had moved from town and Miss Letty had quite lost track of them.

Recalling that she had come to town to pretend, she made a frenzied dash to the toy department. She began to buy recklessly, getting into the spirit of her game.

"I'll find someone to give them to," she thought. Maybe I can borrow a couple of children from an orphanage just for Christmas.

On the way home she stopped to buy a tree and some bright decorations. At the grocer's she gave an order that made that good man's eyes nearly pop out of his head.

Leaving the store behind, loneliness swept over her. The house would be dark when she got home. Maybe the fire would be out, too.

She peered into the gathering dusk. Somebody was there waiting on the front veranda of the rambling old mansion. She hastened her steps. A man stepped forward out of the shadows, a child clinging to each hand.

"Letty," he said. "It's Larry!"
"Land sakes!" she exclaimed. "You gave me a turn. Come in out of the cold."

She hustled them indoors and turned to take a good look as she switched on the lights. It was indeed Larry, older and grayer, but trim and neat in a navy uniform. There stood her dream children, a plain little girl with pigtails and freckles, and a sturdy small boy with pudgy hands and round eyes brimming with tears.

"I want my mummy," he sobbed.
"His mother is dead," explained Larry.

"I thought, Letty," said the man, "that maybe you could look out for them a little. See, I've joined the navy. I've got to go and I hate to leave Letty and Jackie to almost anybody."

Miss Letty gulped and sat down suddenly in the rocker, gathering the little fellow into her arms.

"Gifts of gold," she murmured.

"At Christmas."

"Many's the time I've dreamed of seeing you like that," he said, reaching for one of her hands. She noticed how thin he was. How thin the children were, too, and how inadequate their clothing. "I haven't got much, Letty," he began, "but whatever I've got is yours if you want it."

Still holding the small figure in her arms, she rose to open the door to the kitchen. The house radiated warmth and good cheer. "Fine," she said gently. "Welcome home, children. We'll have baths and supper and then we'll trim the tree."

Larry's eyes caressed her. "Maybe, if I could get the license we could be married before I go off."

"Maybe we could, Larry." His arms were suddenly around her and the child, his lips warm against her cheek. Little Letty clapped her hands.

"Such a Christmas we are going to have!" she cried.

"Even today," quoted Miss Letty, remembering the inscription, "as in days of old, we are sometimes blessed with gifts of gold."

MATCHLESS FREE ENTERPRISE

By ORVILLE GANTON

A shortage of matches in a country in which people are getting lost in the woods every day is enough to make a man hot, mean and mad. I'm a great booster of the old fashioned, corny, wooden kitchen match, which are the best. They burn longer; they're safe and they cost less than the paper strike-on-the-box kind. You will find about two dozen kitchen matches in my vest pocket any time you care to investigate. During the hot weather, when I go vestless, you find them in my right pant's pocket.

One day in the city, a soldier turned from his beautiful date and asked for a match. I obliged. He looked at my gift with a smile that implied I belonged in the last century. "Look," he said to his girl, holding up my lone and modest match, "corn — right off the farm."

Chivalry on my part was all that saved that smart alex from a sound lecture on the virtues of the homely, unpretentious, efficient, economical kitchen match. I hold they are superior to any other fire-maker, including the expensive mechanical gadgets.

Last summer I happened to be sitting at a ball game. To my left was a C.W.A.C. "May I have a light please?" she asked. It happened I had just mooched a book of paper matches from an absent-minded friend, so I handed the young woman the book. She tore out one, set her cigaret on fire and kept the rest. It would have been uncouth to ask for the return of my property, so I let the matter drop. If I'd handed her a single kitchen match, I'd have been out only one match, whereas, her act of expropriation had cost me 20 paper matches. See what I mean. Our per capita match bill amounts to only six mills a week so one mustn't squawk when a C.W.A.C. keeps the entire book. I have the same trouble with lead pencils and books. The only books I have left in my book-case are those that I borrowed.

NORMA STEVENSON DECEMBER BRIDE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rye, Keswick, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, Dec. 8, when Norma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stevenson, Roche's Point, became the bride of Kenneth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smoekum, Sandford. Rev. Gorr-Lapp officiated.

The living-room was tastefully decorated for the occasion with an arch of evergreens, silver bells, pink and white 'mums and snapdragons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a street-length dress of white English wool with a corsage of red roses. The bridesmaids wore the sisters of the bride, Irma, in a powder blue wool dress, with a corsage of pink carnations, and Rheta in a rosewood wool dress, with a corsage of pink 'mums.

Clarence Smoekum, brother of the groom, was best man.

Miss Phyllis Rye played the wedding music, and during the signing of the register, Miss Marlene Rye sang "O Perfect Love."

The pianist and soloist were dressed alike in rose wool with black velvet.

The bride's mother received the guests wearing a black sheer dress trimmed with sequins, and a corsage of pink snapdragons. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a black sheer dress with lime green trim and a corsage of pink snapdragons. A buffet luncheon was served to about 50 guests.

The happy couple left on a honeymoon trip for Niagara Falls and Buffalo, N.Y., and points south of the border amid showers of confetti and best wishes.

For going away the bride wore a black wool coat with black and lime green accessories. On their return they will live at Sandford.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT
REMAND GIVEN ON INCOME TAX CHARGES

Appearing on charges of infringing on prices board regulations, W. Vail, Keswick, David Pivnick, Sutton West, and W. E.
Purdy were remanded at their request to January 4 at magistrate's court here Friday. Magistrate W. E. McIlveen presided.

Wm. J. Porter, Cedar Brae, was also remanded on a charge
of failure to make income tax returns for 1942. The remand followed the accused's assertion that he had sent in his returns
and that he had the duplicate form at home.

N. L. Mathews, K.C., acting for the crown, produced documents sworn to by the keeper of the records at Ottawa to the effect that there was no record of returns being filed by accused and that a letter had been sent warning him of the penalty to which there had been no reply.

Accused said that he had filed his returns in the spring of 1943
and when informed that his returns had not been received, had filed them again just before Christmas in 1944. He said he had posted them at Cedar Brae.

When asked if he had made a duplicate form, accused replied
he had but that he hadn't brought it with him. He was remanded with the condition that he bring the duplicate to the next hearing.

Harold Milburn was remanded for judgment on a charge of careless driving while two other charges, one of dangerous driving and the other failing to have his driver's license, were dismissed for lack of evidence.

Accused pleaded not guilty to all charges.

The incidents out of which the charges arose took place in Sutton November 17 around 10.30 p.m. Constable Wm. Burke testified he saw accused's car collide with a car driven by Lloyd Hollinger. He said accused's car was on the wrong side of the road. Accused said that he swerved his car to avoid a car
being backed from a parking place on the street. Dismissing the dangerous driving charge and remanding accused for judgment
on the careless driving charge, Magistrate McIlveen said that accused should have applied his brakes rather than attempt to go around the rear of the car.

MERRY Christmas

It's a real old-fashioned Christmas we're celebrating again this year. And what a warm, happy glow
it puts into our hearts to know the war is over,
peace reigns supreme once again. This Christmas as we go to church to worship
in freedom the birth of the Christ child, let us offer
a prayer of thanks to Him for the peace and happiness in our hearts. It is with much gladness that we wish you the joys of the holiday season and a New Year in which all your hopes and desires will come true. Thank you for your patronage and cooperation during the war;
we sincerely hope to continue serving you in the years ahead.

AURORA CHILD HIT BY CAR, SERIOUSLY INJURED

Seven-year-old Freddy Barwick lies in a serious condition in York County hospital after being struck by an automobile Monday, Dec. 10. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Barwick, Aurora, he darted from behind a parked Gray Coach bus on Yonge St. and came into the path of a northbound car driven by Clarence Prophet, Peterborough. He was thrown heavily to the pavement and suffered a fractured skull as well as other serious injuries. He was treated by Dr. Crawford Rose and rushed to York County hospital.

Eye-witnesses say the driver had no opportunity to avoid the accident due to cars parked on either side of the road. Chief Constable Fisher Dunham is investigating.

NEW YEAR'S CONSPIRACY

WILLIAM CAMPBELL GAULT
As they drove up the icy gravel drive between the snow-laden evergreens, Margot asked, "Who are the guests?"

"There'll probably be a mob for dinner," Johnny explained as he opened the car door. "Sis always has a gang in on New Year's day."

Shouts of laughter and singing in the huge living room greeted them as the butler opened the door. Through the archway Margot caught a glimpse of Peg, Johnny's sister.

"Only the young could look forward to another year with such gaiety," she observed with amusement.

"I'm afraid," Margot said, "I couldn't keep up with the general enthusiasm before dinner. Isn't there some place we can observe without being observed?"

Johnny nodded toward a small conservatory opening on the living room. "There's a side door to that through the butler's pantry," he led the way.

Seating her on a love seat screened by a magnificent fern, he left to return with refreshments.

Margot took the glass absently, her eyes on the group around the piano. "Isn't that your Miss Leslie?"

He followed her gaze. A raven-haired, vivacious young girl was accompanying his sister in a duet. His secretary!

He nodded. "She seems a little different away from the office."

"She probably doesn't know you're here," Margot said. "And just what do you mean by that?" Johnny asked.

"Oh, Johnny?" her voice was faintly malicious. "Don't tell me you haven't guessed. Why, the girl is simply delirious about you."

His laugh was spontaneous. "Now who's being romantic?"

"She told me," Margot answered evenly.

Johnny stared, open-mouthed. "Honestly?"

His mind searched back over his three years' association with Miss Leslie. Incident after incident cropped up to bolster Margot's assertion.

"Men are stupid, aren't they?" Margot shook her head slowly. "Only blind."

Johnny looked at his watch. "It's about time for my weekly proposal," he said, grinning.

Margot lighted a cigarette. Through the smoke she said, "And your weekly rejection."

"Well," his voice seemed strangely carefree, "in that case I won't propose."

The couples in the other room were dancing now. Johnny's eyes were following his secretary, moving lithely about the polished floor in perfect accord with the intricate pattern of her partner's steps.

"Graceful, isn't she?" "And beautiful," Margot said. Johnny nodded.

"And young."

He looked over at the words, faintly flushed, aware for the second time that day of the disparity between his age and Margot's.

"But not nearly so beautiful nor so graceful as you." His voice lacked conviction.

Margot bowed primly. "But younger."

Just before dinner, Johnny said, "We really should go in and say 'hello' to Miss Leslie. If she knows we're here she must think us rude."

Margot yawned. "I'm too comfortable. You'd better, though. You know, keep up the old office morale."

Margot watched him as he sauntered a shade too casually over to the group once again around the piano. Even at a distance the eagerness with which the girl greeted him was apparent.

Dinner was announced. Someone suggested, "Just one more song. A song for the new year."

Peg struck an opening chord, the group joined hands and voices lifted in singing Auld Lang Syne. Johnny, his hand increasing his secretary's, was by no means the quietest.

Peg was secretly smiling at Miss Leslie. Miss Leslie's eyes were directed toward the conservatory. "Thanks," she seemed to say to Margot.

AURORA SIX FOXES BAGGED IN TOWNSHIP HUNT

Six foxes were bagged by 200 hunters under the direction of game wardens of the township on Saturday, according to Township Clerk John Crawford, Whitchurch, who described the hunt as a "success." After assembling at the township hall, the hunters spread out in smaller parties. They advanced on a line about 100 yards apart as a safety precaution. In addition to the foxes, numerous rabbits and ground-hogs were bagged, as well as two owls. A bounty of $2 was paid for each fox, and the pelt became the possession of the marksman.

CHRISTMAS is only a few days away.
A Long Distance calling will be heavier than ever this year. On long calls—especially

Say the Limbless Fighting Men of Two Great Wars

THIS message to you comes from a large group of front-line fighting men who must pay the price of our victory in unending instalments through every minute of their lives.

They are the members of the Toronto Branch of the War Amputations of Canada to which "amps" who live in your district belong. Every single one has lost a limb or limbs or complete eyesight while serving in the armed forces.

"Amps" of former wars know the difficulties which "amps" of the recent war must face. They have, therefore, planned a permanent Health, Training and Recreation Centre to meet essential needs of war amputation cases.

The new "amp", of course, shares in a splendid governmental programme for the general care and rehabilitation of the war disabled of which we may all be very proud. He also faces unseen handicaps which, by their very nature, are such an intimate and continuing part of his daily life that no official provisions can cover them.

The facilities of the Centre, however, are exactly planned to cover them in the light of the accumulated experience of the "amps" of former wars. They are means by which the "amp" can practise self-reliance measures to lessen the burdensome disadvantages under which he must face the world.

Unseen Handicaps

The "amp's" unseen handicaps arise from conditions peculiar to his type of disability. He, above all men, needs physical fitness. He, above all men, finds this difficult to maintain.

The physical activities beneficial to others are mostly difficult or impossible to the "amp". For those possible to him he often needs special appliances and special conditions. He naturally shuns public recreation that exposes him to the embarrassing stares of the curious.

Amputation and the wearing of artificial limbs tend to cause other bodily abnormalities and organic troubles of varying seriousness. Summer heat and winter ice and snow alike impose physical and mental strain. Few indeed are the "amps" who never have to fight against discouragement and frustration.

Moreover the physical and mental adjustment to efficient use of wood and metal appliances in place of flesh and blood limbs, contrary to much misleading statement, calls in most cases for long and tedious application and watchfulness under helpful guidance.

To Help the "Amps" to Help Themselves

The purpose of the Centre is to allow the "amp" to indulge in sports under suitable conditions; to follow "corrective" exercise routines in a specially-equipped gymnasium; to play games and swim in a private pool free from embarrassment; to enjoy steam baths and helpful massage; to learn new skills in work, sports and hobbies; to gain greater efficiency in the use of artificial limbs; to enjoy in fitting surroundings the leisure-hour companionship of successful comrades which can help him so much.

"Amps" obviously cannot themselves meet the costs of such a project... although they are pledged to subscribe personally a surprisingly large sum. To make their plan possible they are asking you to help raise the necessary Financial Objective of $500,000

They cannot undertake the exhausting grind of personal canvass. They can only trust that, because their cause is reasonable and just—because they have earned the right to ask you—you will not begrudge the little time needed to send your contribution direct. Do they ask in vain?
